

CHANGE

Change implies the passing from the old to the new,
But it must produce a change of mind, too.
Going from place to place doesn't produce a shift
Unless your mind changes—you get my drift.

A renewal of mind produces greater good,
With better health and more happiness, in all likelihood.
A constant renewal—the daily change of mind
Is possible to everyone—to all mankind.

In all the world, change is the greatest remedy.
Unwillingness to change could end in tragedy;
And we are always the change we seek.
Change is the law of life—so perfect your technique.

Change is the end result of all true learning...
You know it can be better—you are constantly yearning.
And the way to make sense out of change is to take a chance.
Plunge into it, move with it. Enjoy the dance.

If you don't change direction you'll end up where you're heading;
Not going anywhere exactly, mostly treading.
You can change the world with the power of your vision.
Don't underestimate its power—make the decision.
