

INSIDE OUT

It's all the world has gone awry –
If life is one big alibi –
If things come up that make you cry –
...Just look inside for the answer.

If things go wrong on a daily basis –
If all you see are angry faces –
If people are always on your cases –
...Just look inside for the answer.

It is through our own self-discovery
That our world will make its recovery.
And 'luck' won't seem such a lottery.
...Just look inside for the answer.
